EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Duke Taylor on December 4, 2003.

The application has been amended as follows: cancel non-elected claims 1-25 and 36-38.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 26-35 are allowed over the prior art of record.
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Weisner et al ('414) teach an apparatus and method for forming plastic skylights. The method comprises the steps of:

1- heating the sheet to a first temperature or a forming state (46; col. 1, last line to col. 2, 1st line), 2 - terminating heating of the sheet by removing the sheet from the heating station (col. 2, lines 1-2), 3 - retaining the sheet between the first and second mold halves with the sheet being supported along a peripheral edge of the mold halves (Fig. 6; col. 3, lines 51-60), 4 - generating a vacuum on one side of the sheet to draw the sheet into an interior space of one of the mold halves while the center portion of the sheet remains supported in space relationship to the mold halves (Fig. 6, col. 3, line 62 to col. 4, line 2 – claim 32); and 5 – cooling the sheet to a second temperature by removing the sheet from the heating station, by vacuum forming in which the mold might not be heated (col. 4, lines 43-44), and by unloading the sheet from the forming station (col. 4, lines 2-4 – claim 26 & 32).

Weisner et al fail to disclose that the first temperature is higher than the glass transition temperature and the sheet achieves a glass transition state, and the heating of the sheet is terminated prior to placing in first and second mold halves.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
